'Pro Gro' Netted Grow Tunnels

High grade, professional quality net tunnels for serious gardeners! Unlike traditional hoop & wire tunnels, the Pro Gro's carbon fibre frame is highly flexible but maintains strength over time, giving a stronger tunnel that's less prone to bowing or collapsing, and protecting crops for longer. Large, zipped doors provide easy access to crops, pots and flowers; guy ropes at either end ensure stability in windy weather; and UV-protected 4mm diameter mesh protects crops from pests and gives subtle shading from excess sun. These tunnels assemble in minutes with no tools needed and can be easily disassembled and stored when not in use.

All our tunnels come with rods, ground pegs, guy ropes and storage bag.
